

CALL FOR PAPERS: 54TH ANNUAL AJL CONFERENCE

The AJL 2019 Conference Committee is now soliciting paper proposals for our upcoming conference at the Warner Center Marriott, Woodland Hills, CA from June 17 - 19th, 2019.

We are seeking papers and presentations on all aspects of Judaica librarianship as it pertains to libraries, archives, museums, schools, synagogues, and related institutions. This year we would like to emphasize hands-on sessions. We are especially soliciting proposals dealing with digital humanities and Jewish Studies and sessions aimed at the needs of high school librarians.

Past topics have included: collection management, programming, reader advisory services, special and rare collections, cataloging and classification, digital and electronic resources and emerging technologies. Presentations on Jewish resources in Los Angeles Jewish library collections and local authors would also be welcomed.

Submissions should include the following:

- * Presenter's name, address, affiliation, telephone and email contacts.
- * Brief biography
- * Title of proposed presentation
- * Summary of proposal not to exceed 300 words
- * Specific technology or equipment requirements, if any

All submissions must be received by November 30, 2018. Please submit proposals by e-mail (PREFERRED) to: conference@jewishlibraries.org

Proposals will be reviewed by the Program Planning Committee, composed of national and local AJL members.

Notification will be made in January, 2019.
